

Cell Phone Use Agreement

I know that having a cell phone to use is a privilege. I respect that my parents love me and want to keep me safe. My parents respect that I am becoming a young adult and want the privilege of having the use of a cell phone. With that in mind, we agree:

I will remember what usage is allowed with our cell phone plan and I will not go over the limits of that usage. This includes number of minutes, text message limits and/or

Minutes allowed _____	Texts allowed _____
Photos allowed _____	Videos allowed _____

I know that I am required to contribute to the cost of my cell phone. My contribution is:

My cell phone must be turned off at this time _____ each night. It is my responsibility to be sure the cell phone is being recharged each night.

I will not use my cell phone while driving.

Other times I may not use my cell phone are:

I agree that if I am unable to keep up with my responsibilities, the use of my cell phone can be taken away from me. This can happen even if I have contributed to the cost of the cell phone plan.

I will not use my cell phone to take pictures of nudity, violence or other unallowed instances.

I will not use my cell phone to call anyone for malicious purposes. (bullying, crank calling, etc.)

I will limit the number of people that have my cell phone number to ____.

I will limit the amount of time I am on the phone.

These limitations are:

The consequences for not following through with these limits on my cell phone use are:
